THANKSGIVING

Thanksgiving is a national holiday in our country. Almost everyone celebrates Thanksgiving. Many people observe annual customs in celebrating Thanksgiving.

Do you?

Do you observe annual customs in celebrating Thanksgiving?

Personally, I remember when I was growing up that usually Thanksgiving meant that just our family gathered around the turkey. It was a day just for mom, dad, my brother, and I. Oh, we feasted and watched football, but it was a day for the four of us.

Later in life, my wife and I chose to celebrate differently. Being in the ministry meant there were worship opportunities to include. Usually Wednesday night and/or Thursday morning gave our family the ability to thank God for all the blessings. Early on in our marriage, Cindy's aunt and uncle would travel from Wisconsin to join us for Thanksgiving. Then after they passed, we began to invite friends to join our family around our table.

Every year, I remember that each one who sat around our table, could voice a blessing they were grateful for receiving while we asked the blessing. I always enjoyed that custom. And I'm sure that we are not the only family who celebrates Thanksgiving that way.

So what can we be thankful for receiving?

LIFE.

We can and should be thankful for receiving life. For we are alive both physically and spiritually. There are so many reasons to give thanks for each one of us. Here are a few reasons which the Bible gives:

Psalm 103:1, 2. Praise the Lord, O my soul; all my inmost being, praise his holy name. Praise the Lord, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits.

November Schedule:
Due to Phase 4
COVID-19,
NO SERVICES

Psalm 118:1. Give thanks to the Lord, for he is good; his love endures forever.

Psalm 145:2, 10-12. Every day I will praise you and extol your name for ever and ever. All you have made will praise you, O Lord; your saints will extol you. They will tell of the glory of your kingdom and speak of your might, so that all men may know of your mighty acts and the glorious splendor of your kingdom.

Psalm 145:15, 16. The eyes of all look to you, and you give them their food at the proper time. You open your hand and satisfy the desires of every living thing.

Matthew 5:45. He causes his sun to rise on the evil and the good, and sends rain on the righteous and the unrighteous.

Matthew 6:8. Your Father knows what you need before you ask him.

Luke 6:33, 35, 36. If you do good to those who are good to you, what credit is that to you? . . . But love your enemies, do good to them . . . Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful.

Romans 8:32. He who did not spare his own Son, but gave him up for us all-how will he not also, along with him, graciously give us all things?

Ephesians 4:32. Be kind and compassionate to one another, forgiving each other, just as in Christ God forgave you.

Ephesians 5:19, 20. Sing and make music in your heart to the Lord, always giving thanks to God the Father for everything, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.

Philippians 4:6. With thanksgiving, present your requests to God.

James 1:17. Every good and perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of the heavenly lights.

1 Peter 2:9. You are a chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people belonging to God, that you may declare the praises of him who called you out of darkness into his wonderful light.

1 Peter 5:7. Cast all your anxiety on him because he cares for you.

It is amazing to recognize all that we can and should be thankful to God for receiving.

So this Thanksgiving, we'll begin a worship series titled a "GOD-LIVED LIFE." As we look through eyes of faith, we count ourselves blessed because of all our Lord and Savior provides. As we recognize these blessings we endeavor to use our blessings for God's glory and service to our neighbor.

"GOD-LIVED LIFE"

1) Thanksgiving	WED./THURS.	Nov. 24/25	"A Life of Being A Disciple"
2) 1st Sunday Advent	SUNDAY	Nov. 28	"A Life Lived For Others"
3) 2nd Sunday Advent	SUNDAY	Dec. 5	"A Life of Hospitality"
4) 3rd Sunday Advent	SUNDAY	Dec. 12	"A Life Lived Shrewdly"

As we head into the holiday season, Thanksgiving, Christmas, and New Year's, may we do so with THANKSGIVING—hearts filled with gratitude for the countless blessings we receive from God's hand. Maybe you can begin a new Thanksgiving custom or just continue an already meaningful one. In any case, BE THANKFUL.

Principal's Report – November Zion Newsletter

Time has certainly flown! We are already at the end of our first quarter at Zion Lutheran School and into parent-teacher meetings and our second quarter. What a blessing it is to be able to partner with parents in the education of their children. As we continue with the theme “Out of This World” we are reminded of the important responsibility we have to share the pure message of the Gospel with the next generation - in classroom devotions, in chapel, and throughout the school day. As October ends with the festival of Reformation, we rejoice at the awesome privilege of reminding believers young and old that our citizenship is in heaven, by grace alone, through faith alone, through Scripture alone, in Christ alone, and because of this wonderful message, we can say with all God's people, “To God ALONE the glory!”

We are very proud of the girls' volleyball team, who just finished their season. They showed real persistence and a positive attitude as they were able to have some competition with other schools and had a good “growing year” to develop their skills. We thank Mrs. Stacey Sordahl for serving as our coach and Mrs. Michelle Roth and Mrs. Deanna Schneck for assisting, and congratulate the team on their efforts this season.

Our November school service project is a Winter Clothing Exchange, which will help not only our own students, but also those in need in the community. If you have gently used winter clothing (children's and adults) that you no longer need, we welcome your donations on the table in the school hallway from now until November 19. We continue to collect our chapel mission offering for WELS mission work in Pakistan. Please remember this ministry in your prayers.

Though we did not hold our harvest party this year, the Christian Education Association (CEA) of Zion provided a great opportunity for fun and fellowship with an outdoor Trunk-or-Treat on October 31st. The CEA also purchased new volleyballs, new basketballs and storage racks, and nine new Chromebooks for student use, which were much needed. We thank CEA for their support and work for our school family.

Do you participate in Scrip? Purchasing gift cards through Scrip for things you already shop for on a regular basis results in a percentage cash-back which benefit our school and church. It doesn't cost more than a little of your time, and the benefits are substantial. Please see the school bulletin board for more information.

The Zion Board of Education and the Zion Staff are discussing present and future plans for our school program, and we are excited about both the challenges and opportunities that are before us. We know that God has great plans for his people, including Zion congregation and the families of Zion Lutheran School. Please continue to pray for your school ministry and the people who serve it and are served by it. As we continue to serve the lambs and sheep that God has placed in our care, and plan and prepare for the future, we ask that you pray your school ministry and the people who serve it and are served by it.

In Christ's service and yours,

Principal Schneck

Psalm 100

¹ Shout to the LORD with joy, all the earth.

² Serve the LORD with gladness.

Come before him with joyful songs.

³ Know that the LORD is God.

He made us, and we are his.

We are his people, the sheep of his pasture.

⁴ Enter his gates with thanksgiving,

his courtyards with praise.

Give thanks to him and bless his name.

⁵ For the LORD is good. His mercy endures forever.

His faithfulness continues through all generations.
